

Experienced leadership and teamwork.

Brett Malden / President & CEO

2B Worldwide is Brett's vision in practice. Beginning with Motorola, his professional career includes engagements with highly recognized multi-billion dollar international companies. With his background, Brett brings a wealth of leadership and competitive business experience to 2B clients. This, in concert with his dynamic intellectual perspectives, drives 2B as the innovative pioneer in the field of Business Component Integration (BCI). As President & CEO, he plays a hands-on role, providing direction for 2B while personally engaging in the development and application of leading edge client solutions.
